

Thank you

Thank you to the partners who helped to disseminate Emerging Minds' 2020–21 National Workforce Survey for Parent, Child and Family Mental Health.

Partners

- Allied Health Professions Australia
- Analysis & Policy Observatory (APO)
- Australasian College of Paramedicine
- Australian Association of Psychologists Inc (AAPi)
- Australian Institute of Family Studies (AIFS)
- Australian National University (ANU)
- Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation (ANMF) National
- Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation (ANMF) Tasmania
- Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation (ANMF) Victoria
- Australian Psychological Society (APS) SA
- Be You (Beyond Blue)
- Blue Mountains City Council
- Centre for Excellence in Child and Family Welfare
- Children's Healthcare Australasia
- CRANAPlus
- Families Australia
- Family Law Pathways Network Victoria
- Healthy Development Adelaide
- Mental Health Australia
- Mental Health Commission Victoria
- Monash University
- Murrumbidgee Primary Health Network (PHN)
- National Rural Health Alliance
- Occupational Therapy (OT) Australia
- Parenting Research Centre (PRC)
- Queensland Nursing and Midwifery Union (ANMF QLD)
- Royal Australasian College of General Practitioners (RACGP)
- Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Psychiatrists (RANZCP)
- Rural Doctors Association Australia
- Rural Doctors Association of Tasmania
- Rural Health Pro
- SNAICC
- South Western Sydney Primary Health Network (PHN)
- Speech Pathology Australia
- TAFE SA
- Tasmanian Council of Social Services (TasCOSS)
- Turkindi Indigenous Information Network
- Victorian Alcohol and Drug Association
- Victorian Healthcare Association
- Western Australian Primary Healthcare Alliance (WAPHA – WA PHNs)

Receive a link to the next iteration of the survey to share with your networks (from June 2023) by contacting us.